Appendix F – Overarching Program Logic Model

Overarching Program Logic Model

Contextual factors: Socioeconomic, cultural background, policy context, related government initiatives (e.g. mental health, family support and protective interventions, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander initiatives, justice, LGBTI supports), rurality.

Strategies/ Inputs Living is For Everyone (LIFE) Framework

National Suicide Prevention Program

National Suicide Prevention Strategy Action Framework

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Suicide Prevention Strategy

Research into suicide prevention strategies

Activities/ Outputs

Provision and consolidation of suicide prevention resources. information and research

Direct Individual Client Services to high risk groups

Community Focused Services/ Activities for people at risk of suicide

Workforce Development & Training in recognising and responding to risk for front line workers, families and community members

Effects (Short, Medium & Long Term)

Individual

Improved access opportunities for to support and social connection care for people and participation feeling suicidal

Improved capability to respond at potential tipping points and points of imminent risk

Individuals experience local services linking effectively resulting in seamless service delivery

Improved

skills and line workers.

families and carers understanding.

capacity of front-

Community

awareness of what is needed

Increased

Increased

community

to prevent suicide

Improved community strength and resilience

Increased understanding of whole of community risk and protective factors, and how best to build resilience of communities and individuals

Service System

Improved access to suicide prevention resources and information

Systematic, long term structural interventions in areas of greatest need

An environment that encourages and supports individual helpseeking

Increased organisational capacity to respond appropriately to risk of suicide

Outcomes

Improved individual resilience and wellbeina

Reduced incidence of suicidal behaviour in the groups at highest risk

Reduced incidence of suicide in the groups at highest risk

